Phoenix Yard Books. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Lyra and the Adventure of the Flying Fish, Peter Emina, Alice Ridley, It's a strange and dangerous world out there. Lyra and White Rabbit were together from the very first moment. As the second moment arrived, Rabbit lay there with his head next to hers. He could feel her tiny breaths passing along the plastic tube the doctors had fitted to help Lyra's not quite ready lungs puff, pant & gasp. He listened to the air as it tickled his big furry ears. Peacefully floating on the surface of life, Lyra is very good at ignoring everything. But when her beloved Rabbit is taken away by an unschooled whooshing jumble of flying fish, Lyra finds herself caught up in an amazing watery adventure below the surface of the ocean. With the help of her new friend Timothy the turtle, she bravely vows to find White Rabbit at all costs. Journey beyond the incubator and into the imagination with this highly original and beautifully illustrated tale of a premature baby. ABOUT THE REAL LYRA .When Peter Emina and Alice Ridley first met their niece Lyra and saw her struggling to stay alive, they were inspired to create a story about the sort of adventure she might be dreaming up for herself as she lay in her incubator. Lyra was born at just 24 weeks and five days. She weighed only 1lb and 10oz and she was about the size of an adult's hand. Lyra's lung's were not properly developed and she couldn't breathe on her own, so the doctors at Luton and Dunstable Hospital have her something to help her breathe. It was called a CPAP and it fitted over her mouth and nose. It looked a bit like a snorkel so that's what...
