Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Hsueh-Chiao Jian (1933 - ), came from the Sinology family as a native Taiwanese living in Tsaotun town of Nantou county, and has taught at several elementary schools, Junior high school, community college until his retirement. His pre-retirement work was focused in music and Chinese literature education, and his daily life activities encompass garden landscaping, bonsai trees plantation, poems and prose compositions. His versatile achievements in many fields synthesize into his unique intellectual personality of an artistic life. Having retired for more than twenty years, he is still diligently dedicated to promoting Japanese language education. His teaching method is easily approachable by way of Learning through singing in a Japanese way, a combination of Japanese folk songs and ancient literature, his effort is popular and very well appreciated by the local town folks. This book is the memoirs of his daily life, whereby the time frame spans from Japanese colonial period to the withdrawal of Japanese occupation, to the present. The text is sometimes brisk, sometimes sorrowful, sometimes amused, quite similar to the artistic living style of Six...
