

A Pioneer, a Memoir of J. Thomas

By George Stringer Rowe

General Books LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 34 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.1in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1885 Excerpt: . . . CHAPTER VII. AT VAVAU. ON March 21st, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left Nukualofa for their new station at Vavau. The parting with the people was painful, and many tears were shed. After a comfortable voyage in an American whaler, though slow by reason of light and contrary winds, they reached their destination on the 25 th, and in a day or two Mr. Thomas was in full and regular work. The first local preachers meeting was held on the 4th of May, when a faithful inquiry discovered no case in which a charge could be brought against the moral character of any of the teachers. Fourteen persons, says Mr. Thomas, have been proposed and accepted as teachers. Some of them are very promising persons. Three or four are chiefs, and all are deeply pious. Amongst them is Sailosi (Cyrus) Faone, my old friend and...

READ ONLINE
[6.05 MB]

Reviews

It is just one of my personal favorite publication. It is among the most awesome publication i have read. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Delia Rutherford

I actually started out reading this book. It can be packed with wisdom and knowledge I discovered this ebook from my dad and i suggested this book to understand.

-- Prof. Barney Harris