Collisions Course

By J E Anzalone

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Scott Heinz watched the woman lying next to him breathe as she slept. Her body was washed in purples and yellows from the sunrise that poured through the hotel window, and every breath she took seemed perfectly choreographed. It was a beautiful dance to watch, marred only by the fact that he couldn't remember her name. Being a member of a world famous band had its perks but, at almost 40, he was getting too old for this kind of nonsense. Then he saw it, the crumpled old envelope on the dresser, and the sunrise ballet next to him was immediately obscured by visions of a revolver jammed against his forehead - one of countless images the letter pried from his memory. Scott hadn't bothered to open the envelope. He already knew who it was from and what it said. Come alone. No strings attached. In this semi-autobiographical novel, J.E. Anzalone details the events that shaped the lives of a group of friends after they devised a unique plan in high school to reunite 20...
