STATE BEE INSPECTOR S REPORT The year 1913 has been a very favorable one to the bee keepers of Iowa in spite of the severe drouth. There was an unusually heavy honey flow from white clover over nearly the whole state, and this was followed by a good fall flow in many localities. The business of honey production has been given so little publicity until recently that there seems to be a very general idea that the business does not amount to much in this state. On the other hand the honey producing possibilities of other states have been so widely advertised that Iowa bee keepers have been induced to change locations, only to find, in many instances, that they left a better locality than they found. In making a comparison of the value of the bees on the farms in Iowa with those of other states it will be found that only one other state of equal area exceeds that of our own. Without regard to area Iowa ranks near the head of the list, only California, Texas, Missouri and New York ranking ahead of her. California and Texas have such exceedingly large areas that there is no fair basis for comparison and Missouri is but little ahead in spite of her greater area. Area considered New York alone ranks ahead of us. Colorado and Idaho whose possibilities in this direction have been so widely advertised in our state, are both far...
