Friday 1925 There will be no exposition unless the people of Portland vote for it. Readers may analyze for themselves as to whether this kind of matter, set forth as a school exercise in the official school bulletin and signed by Publicity Committee for the Exposition, is or is not campaign material in behalf of the measure to be voted upon at the election of Saturday, Nov. 19. Many shout for the 1925 Fair, but few are willing to pay. Those who shout the loudest seem most willing to force taxpayers to pay. It s cheaper to make taxpayers put up the money than it is to subscribe as heavily as would be necessary were the fair to be financed by...
