Reviews

This is the finest publication we have read through right up until now. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is only after i finished reading through this book by which basically altered me, affect the way i think.

Council Bluffs joins with me in wishing you a most happy reunion. George H. Richmond. RECORDING SECRETARYS REPORT. Headquarters Society Of The Army Of The Tennessee, Recording Secretarys Office, P. O. Box 35. Cincinnati, Ohio, October 5, 1905. General G. M. Dodge, President: General: --I have the honor to submit the following report: Our last meeting was in Washington, October 15 and 16, 1903, at the dedication of the Sherman monument. The only proceedings had at this reunion were the reports of officers and election of new officers, and the dedication of the monument. In view of the fact that the Congressional Joint Committee on the Library published a book giving full details of the dedication, and also of the proceedings of our meeting, no volume was printed by us of this reunion. In the forthcoming report of the present reunion we propose to consolidate the items necessary as to the last meeting. I have collected since the last report the following amounts, which I have transferred to the Treasurer: Dues 93 00 Interest on Dayton Fund 342 68--435 68 During the illness of General Hickenlooper and since his death I have acted as Corresponding Secretary, and it becomes my painful duty to report the following members as having died since our last meeting in Washington, October 15 and 16, 1903: Colonel Augustus Jacobson. . . Washington, D. C. . October 15, 1903. Major Robt. M. Thompson Washington, D....
