But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and believing ye might have life through his name. - John, 20 c, xxx, xxxi. v. Strange is the condition in which Providence has placed the believer; he is ever walking (with regard to the knowledge of this world) in the midst of darkness and obscurity: but to the believer himself, all is light, so far as he is enabled to exercise faith upon the testimonies given by inspired men. Does he wish to ascertain the truth, which is the object of his faith? It is founded on facts, and in order to be assured of these facts he must force his way backward through more than eighteen centuries; he must dig truth and falsehood out of the rubbish of...
